

The Cannon Speaks

Newsletter of The Elgin Military Museum

30 Talbot St., St. Thomas N5P 1A3

May 2, 2008

Special Edition

Book Launch Tomorrow !

Come One, Come All ! Saturday May 3, the Museum will launch our latest book, Opened by Censor, letters home from WWI veterans, edited by Jeff Booth.

Come and take part, and get your copy .
Jeff will be at the Museum signing copies.

Remember, Museum Members get a 20% discount, so get yours tomorrow for only $20 ! If you can't get to the Museum tomorrow, call and reserve a copy today – it's a limited edition, and sure to sell out quickly – Order yours today !

McCrae Exhibit Opens

Also tomorrow, the Museum will open our special exhibit on Dr. John McCrae, author of In Flanders Fields. Learn about his fascinating and varied life in this travelling exhibit from Guelph Museums, McCrae House.

At the opening, a special guest speaker, Laurence Grant, will speak. Laurence worked at McCrae House at the time the medals were originally acquired, and will give his insights on that remarkable event.

Bring your friends and join us tomorrow !